WANTS BLOOD MONEY.

Murderer Sees to Collect Insurance On Life of His Victim.

AN UNPRECEDENTED PROCEEDING.

Pennsylvania Professor Killed His Wife and Escaped the Gallows on The Plea of Insanity—Her Life Was Well Insured.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—A suit to recover insurance on the life of his wife, whom he killed Dec. 31, 1893, has been commenced in this city by Prof. Swithin C. Shortlidge, who resides at Kennett Square in Chester county. The suit which is to recover the sum of $7,022 from the Provident Life and Trust company is one of the most remarkable in the history of life insurance.

The tragedy which ended the life of Mrs. Shortlidge was enacted in Media one New Year's eve and caused a great sensation. Several years before that date, Prof. Shortlidge had come to Media with his family and established what was known as the Media Academy for Young Men. For several years the venture was successful, the school having a high class patronage. Then Mrs. Shortlidge died.

In November, 1893, Prof. Shortlidge married Miss Marie Dixon Jones. Shortly after his second marriage the professor began to act strangely. The night of the killing, six weeks after the marriage of Prof. Shortlidge invited his wife to go out with him for a walk. A short distance from the house, he shot her through the heart and then attempted suicide but was disarmed by a neighbor. In the trial which followed Prof. Shortlidge was acquitted on the ground of insanity and was confined in an asylum until a year ago.

There is no case of a parallel nature in the insurance annals of this state.

New York, Oct. 10.—President Manuel A. Sanciente of Colombia who was deposed from office July 31 and his place taken by Vice President Jose M. Marroquin, has relinquished his claim to the head of the government, thus making the latter the legal chief executive. This news has been received in this city by Eduardo Espinoza, charge d'affaires, and consul general. Immediately upon receipt of this information Senor Espinoza sent a cable message to Bogota resigning his office. It is the opinion of many Colombians in this city that President Sanciente acted as he did on account of his age. He is 85 years old.

GIVEN A SETBACK.

Ill Advised Military Operations in China Delay Negotiations.

Washington, Oct. 10.—There is no longer any doubt that this government heartily approves the main propositions in the French note in regard to a common program to be adopted by the powers as a basis for peace negotiations with China, although not favorable to some of the lesser details.

Recent happenings in China, especially in the province of Chile and elsewhere in China are said to be responsible for the check which diplomacy has met in reaching a settlement.

There was no necessity whatever for the Paoting Fu expedition in the judgment of officials here and that was the adventure which determined the imperial court to flee to the western mountains. Li Hung Chang and the viceroys of the south had pledged themselves to maintain order and guarantee protection for foreigners and property in their respective provinces. The viceroys lived loyally up to their promises, in spite of irritating military expeditions and movements of various kinds set up against their protests and therefore it is regarded as particularly unfortunate that the allied forces should persist now in the expedition against Paoting Fu.

Says Americans Were Warned.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—Lieutenant A. Dolgoroukoff, of the Russian army is here on his way east where he will spend a few days before returning to Russia. The lieutenant was on board the Russian flagship when the attack was made on the forts at Taku. SECOND FATAL CLASH.

Strikers and Policemen Have a Fight At Oneida Colliery.

ONE POLICEMAN INSTANTLY KILLED.

Another Policeman and a Striker Dangerously Wounded—Tragedy Was the Climax to Two Early Morning Riots.

Hazleton, Oct. 10.—The second fatal clash between the striking mine workers and the non-union men occurred at Oneida colliery in Schuylkill county, 12 miles from here, when a coal and iron policeman was shot and instantly killed, another policeman and striker dangerously wounded. In addition about a dozen of the employees of the colliery were stoned and badly injured by the strikers. The dead man is Ralph Mills of Beaver Meadow. George Kelly, Beaver Meadow is in the miner's hospital here with a bullet in his head. The striker wounded is Joseph Lipko of Seppont, who was shot through the groin. The shooting was the result of two separate riots. The first began at 2 o'clock a. m. and reached a climax about 6 o'clock when the marching strikers, mostly Hungarians, attacked the men on their way to work in the Oneida colliery, which is operated by Cox Brothers and Co. The marchers numbered about 300 men, women and boys. Stones were thrown and the coal and iron policemen who endeavored to protect those on the way to work were forced to seek shelter. No shots were fired at this time and the marchers dispersed. The second clash was the result of an attempt on the part of the company to have a train of coal cars moved from the slopes to a breaker. The engine which was attached to the cars was surrounded by men and women who stoned the engineer. Superintendent Dulick of Drifton remonstrated with the crowd, but to no purpose.

The policemen in this instance were employees who had been sworn in to protect the company's collieries. Rev. Carl Houser, a Lutheran clergyman, appealed in vain to the mob to disperse. Persistent attempts were made to run the train and the men made a concerted rush upon the guards who are said to have run in the direction of the engine house. The strikers gave chase and the firing followed. Probably a dozen shots were fired. It is not known from which side the first shot came.

After a conference between company officials, Sheriff Toole of Pottsville was notified that the company was in need of instant protection. He was urged to request the governor to send military aid.

Mass Meeting at Scranton.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 10.—All interest in the strike of the mine workers of the Lackawanna region centered upon the great parade and mass meeting Wednesday afternoon. President John Mitchell and his party, "Mother" Jones, W. R. Fairley of Alabama, George Purcell of Indiana, and Benjamin James of Jeansville, members of the national executive committee, the organizers and district presidents arrived at 10 a. m. from Shamokin. The parade was made up of six divisions and it was estimated that about 15,000 men and boys were in line, many of whom walked long distances to get here in time for it. The mass meeting was held late in the afternoon and many miners were present.

Willing to Accept.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 10.—Five delegates left here for Scranton to participate in the miners' convention. They have been instructed to vote for a reduction in the price of powder to $1.50 per keg, semi-monthly pay and to accept the 10 per cent increase, providing operators guarantee to keep wages up to that standard for at least one year.

SCHRIEBER'S SWEETHEART.

Has Diamonds and Money He May Have Bestowed On Her.

New York, Oct. 10.—The police believe William Schriber, who embezzled $100,000 from the Elizabethan Banking company of Elizabethport, N. J., is hiding in this city. Former Judge Gamooty, counsel for the institution, asked for the service of two detectives. He said he had several men watching a flat where they suspected Schriber would be. Detectives were assigned to the case.

Mrs. Anna Hart, the occupant of the flat under surveillance, is said to have diamonds worth $20,000 and $12,000 in cash, supposed to be remnants of Schriber's alleged peculations. Mrs. Hart admits that Schriber lived with her under the name of William Hart, but claims she has seen nothing of him since Aug. 18.

Civil proceedings will be instituted against Mrs. Hart by the officers of the bank for the recovery of the $20,000 diamonds worth $20,000 and $12,000 property valued at $5,000 which, they allege, were lavished upon her by Schriber.

YOUTSEY COLLAPSED.

Prisoner Became Hysterical—Trial Suspended Until Thursday.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 10.—Henry Youtsey did not appear in court when it convened Wednesday morning. Judge Cantrill asked the jailer where the defendant was. The jailer replied that Youtsey was not able to be brought into the court room. Colonel Crawford informed the court that Dr. Carrick had been called to see Youtsey Tuesday night and found defendant violent. It was necessary to administer opiates, under the influence of which he had slept, but in the morning he was in a stupor with every indication of having been in convulsions during the night. Prosecuting Attorney Franklin had no objection to passing the case, but said the court should appoint physicians to examine and report on Youtsey's condition. It was thereupon ordered that the case be passed till Thursday.

POLITICAL CLEANSING.

Bryan Replies to Meiklejohn's Letter About Sulu Slavery.

ROOSEVELT SPEAKING IN INDIANA.

Chairman Jones Appoints a Democratic Field Day and Calls on Clubs to Collect Proof of Coercion and Intimidation.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 10.—William J. Bryan today in cognizance of the letter sent to him by Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn, which was given out Tuesday, has prepared a reply to it. The reply says:

"I am in receipt of your favor of the sixth inst in regard to the Sulu treaty. It is true that the president two months after the signing of the treaty sent to General Otis the instructions which you quote. You will note that the treaty or agreement as the president describes, was confirmed and approved subject to the action of congress and the only exception that he made was that in regard to article 19, relating to slavery. You can but know, however, that since the president sent those instructions the Republican party, with the approval of the administration has adopted the theory that the constitution does not follow the flag and therefore the 13th amendment does not interfere with slavery in the Sulu archipelago. The Porto Rican law asserts the doctrine that the people of Porto Rico are beyond the protection of the constitution and can be governed by the arbitrary and unrestrained power of the president and congress. If the constitution itself cannot reach the West Indies, how can the 13th amendment find its way across the Pacific into Asia? The president does not repudiate article 13 which reads as follows: 'The United States will give full protection to the sultan and his subjects if any foreign nation should attempt to impose upon them.'"

In view of the fact that the president in his letter of acceptance declares it is dangerous for us to agree to protect a Christian republic in the Philippine islands, would it not be wise for him to withdraw the agreement to protect a Mohammedan island? The president does not repudiate article 14 which reads as follows: 'The United States will not sell the island of Sulu or any other island of the Sulu archipelago to any foreign nation without the consent of the Sultan of Sulu. If we buy all the Philippine islands from Spain without the consent of the inhabitants is it fair that we should agree not to sell any of the Sulu islands without the consent of the sultan? In other words, is it more important that a sultan's wishes should be considered than that the interests of the rest of the people should be regarded?'"

Bryan in Michigan.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Oct. 10.—William J. Bryan began a two days' tour of Michigan at East Buffalo. He made a short address at Michigan City, Ind. At Buffalo he said he would be satisfied to have all who were loaning money in Europe vote for McKinley if those who were not loaning money there would vote for him. Benton Harbor was reached a few minutes before 9 o'clock while Mr. Bryan was eating his breakfast. The platform was near the train and the immense crowd waited patiently while Mr. Bryan hurriedly finished his meal. Mr. Bryan talked half an hour dwelling especially on trusts and imperialism.

Jones on Coercion.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Senator J. K. Jones, chairman of the national Democratic committee said, "I intend to address a letter to the Democratic clubs all over the country requesting them to give me proof in all instances that come within their knowledge of employers undertaking to coerce or intimidate employees. Our people are thoroughly aroused to the danger in this direction and are determined to have an honest election."

BOURKE COCHRAN ON JEFFERSON AND MCKINLEY.

"Jefferson took territory to avoid war; McKinley is seeking war to take territory. Jefferson took contiguous territory to do justice and avoid the provocations of war in the future; McKinley is taking useless and remote territory, which, if he succeeds in subduing, will cause future contests without number. Jefferson took territory to incorporate into a union of states and extend over it the beneficent influence of our Constitution and the glory of our flag; McKinley is setting territory, not to expand our Constitutional government over it, but to turn it over to gladiators, to be exploited and plundered by squatters and favorites."

Is the event of Bryan's election it is absolutely necessary that a Congress in sympathy with him should be elected. The Executive, confronted by an unfriendly legislative body, would be powerless. Everything indicates Bryan's election. Let the Democrats of the Ninth district "bend every energy" toward electing a Congress that will stand by him in his efforts to save the republic.

This is a close district. It is, normally, Democratic. The Democrats are determined to elect Jim Kehoe, and retire Sam Pugh to private life this fall. But don't be too sanguine, boys. The only way you can accomplish such a desirable result is to go to work with renewed vigor and energy. Don't stop from now until election day. Plead no excuse from the task before you. If you know any soreness heel it. Administer unto Democrats as their needs require. Be physicians all. Let no Democrat escape from voting, and on the night of the 6th, we will all celebrate together, the redemption of the Ninth.

There are a number of honest Republicans in this district who have had ample opportunities to take Samuel J. Pugh's measure, and they have done so. They know he lacked backbone to stand by those friends who had "boosted" him into Congress. He had not the courage to boldly announce his preferences for postoffices in the district, but sought to shield himself behind the County Executive Committee. And while attempting to influence the action of those committees, he laid the "flattering motion to his son" that the disappointments of the unsuccessful applicants would be visited upon the respective committees. But they got onto his "curves", and the day of reckoning is at hand. Beware of the Sixth! Beware of the Sixth!

Debate the trial of Yontsey for the murder of Goebel at Georgetown Tuesday a most exciting scene was enacted when Arthur Goebel, brother of William Goebel, deceased, took the stand to testify to certain conversations had with the defendant. Arthur Goebel had only answered a few formal questions when Yontsey jumped to his feet yelling and screaming like a mad man. "That's a lie," "I did not murder Goebel," "I tell you Goebel is not dead," "All the demons in perdition can not kill him," and other such exclamations escaped him, finally concluding by shouting, "Hurrah for Goebel," "Three cheers for Goebel." The question to be determined now is whether Yontsey has actually lost his mind or whether he is simply shamming. If Yontsey did advise and counsel the death of Goebel and provide the means for the "deep damnation of his taking off," as contended by the prosecution, then the horrible deed must have weighed heavily upon him during his solitary confinement. The picture of murdered Goebel, standing with bloody finger pointed at him day and night, shaking his gory locks at him, and whose ghost "would not down" at his bidding, was calculated to disturb his peace and quiet, and we must confess, that if he still possesses any portion of heart or conscience that the awful deed would stagger if not topple, his mental faculties. But if he is merely shamming, —if it turns out that he knew what Goebel was about to testify to and that he was about to be condemned by his own words, uttered when off guard, and knowing all hope was gone, and fearing a cross examination himself,—if knowing and feeling all this he sought by a trick to escape the heavy hand of the law, might be turned away, or even if he attempted to play upon the sympathies of the jury by such affectation, his acts become contemptible and nauseating and he is doomed and the Republican party successfully "damned." He is either crazy or guilty, or both, which is not unlikely, when the horror of the crime is contemplated.

Since William Jennings Bryan in his Louisville speech Saturday night called upon all Democrats to support Beckham for Governor, Chas. I. Stewart, editor of the Louisville Dispatch, who has been pretending that he was for Bryan for President in order to induce certain Democrats to vote for Yerkes, has announced his purpose to oppose Bryan. With L. and N. money in his jeans as the fountain of his political inspirations it is no surprise that he refuses to support Bryan and Beckham. The most casual reader of the Dispatch could see that it has never been in sympathy with Bryan. It has been masquerading as a Bryan organ in hopes of ingratiating itself with those of its readers who earnestly desire Bryan's election, and then, by degrees, estrange them from the support of Beckham, and finally discover some pretext on which to antagonize Bryan, stampeding its readers to the acceptance of the whole Republican ticket. The sheep's clothing has now been removed, and the wolf stands in open gaze of all Democrats in all its hideousness. Will you longer be deceived by the rant and hypocrisy of such a discreditable sheet?

Stewart has been playing the role of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde to a Queen's taste. The Mr. Hyde part of him is now exposed. But there is much method in this man's madness. He does not announce that he will support McKinley. Such an announcement would arouse even those credulous Democrats who follow him blindly, to mutiny and rage. This slick gentleman says he proposes to vote for either Dobs or Moneyhon, the socialist's candidates, which, he has not yet decided. A double play. In this he hopes to influence those who have a leaning towards socialism to support their own tickets. Corporations are not in the habit of paying out their hard cash for chumps. They ever look for smooth hypocrites "who can keep the promise to the ear, while breaking it to the hope." In Mr. Stewart they have one such. But his little trick deceives not, neither does it confuse. Anybody with sense enough to know a "hawk from a hand-saw when the wind in the South" has enough to know that either Bryan or McKinley will be inaugurated the 4th of March next.

Mr. Stewart cannot deceive the socialists. They are well aware that McKinley is dominated, operated and controlled by the moneyed interests of the country and stands in a cleft pool of trust corruption and national dishonor up to his ears. They also know that W. J. Bryan, imbued with the western spirit of independence, possessing a spotless and unrolled character, honest, brave and loyal, in sympathy with labor and laborers, if elected, will snatch this republic from the yawning abyss over which it now hangs suspended, and placing it again firmly between the constitution and the flag, and with God and the people's virtue its protectors and defenders, will inaugurate reforms that will make it independent of trust magnates, money barons and militarism, for a century to come. Mr. Stewart has been bullied by Bryan, but he cannot bamboozle Democrats and Socialists.

The Corbin Pathfinder, a Republican paper of the Eleventh district, after demonstrating what a virtuous and God-fearing people dwell in the mountains, thus proceeds to prophecy and terrorize: "In November they intend to elect John W. Yerkes Governor of this Commonwealth, and they intend to see him seated and retain his seat. They propose to see that the unjust persecution of their neighbors stop, and more, they propose to see that those middle men who have been convicted by perjury, prejudice and d—n rascality are protected. If it takes every drop of blood that courses through their veins."

"Blood, and holy smoke! You aren't going to do it all at once are you? Aren't you afraid of overexertion?" And really, is there not some possibility of your overestimating your ability? Of course, we all do know with what facility Republican majorities are ground out in the Eleventh district, as per order, in some cases the majorities exceeding the number of voters in the county. We are also well aware of the manner in which your desperate feudists intimidate election officers and voters, but with all that, don't you think you have undertaken a huge task in electing Yerkes Governor all by yourselves? Are there no other Republicans to give you a lift? Have they all deserted the party of toadles and bullies? Perhaps 'tis so, in which event you do well to reckon only with yourself in the effort to elect Yerkes. We regret to inform you that the use of Bradley and galling guns will be denied you in this heroic effort. As for Yerkes' seat, he has the privilege to retain all that is left of it after it has been bombarded by the ballot army of law abiding citizens. As to those noble men (meaning Howard and Powers we presume), who have been convicted, you need have no worry about them not being protected. They will be protected, and fully, because we have it of good authority that the Sheriff of Franklin County knows his business, and can be a noose, and Gov. Beckham is not "old enough to know" how to sign his name to a pardon for Powers. The case

The directors of the Board of Trade met last night in their rooms Cox Building. The chief purpose of the meeting was to take some steps in regard to Ladies' day which is to be held in this city next Wednesday, Oct. 17. It was decided that the business men should be requested to advertise special bargains for that day and that the newspapers whoop it up with a big whoop. The board authorized T. D. Slatery to go before City Council and request it to appropriate $25 in the hands of Mayor Stallen to be given to the Ohio River Improvement Committee to secure legislation looking to the improvement of the Ohio river.

A day or two ago a man and woman, claiming to be husband and wife of respectable parentage, church searers and so on, swooped down on Maysville and gave the city officers a broad smile and asked for the privilege of giving a curtailed show on Sutton street. They said it was just the most innocent kind of amusement, nothing to shock the taste of the most fastidious and calculated to build up and strengthen the weak and tottering morals of this dear old town, and upon such representations they were permitted to set up in business. But it was not long until the variety of birds which roosted there threw a heavy veil of suspicion about the character of the performance. An investigation was set on foot by Chief Danoran, who soon made the discovery that the Oriental dance on the "Midway" was not one, two, three, in comparison. It had all the attractions of that dance, with the addition of an opium joint. The Chief bundled up the whole layout and landed them in jail. They will be tried this morning before Judge Wadsworth. They gave their names as Frank Lamar and wife.

LADIES' and MISSSES' TRIMMED HATS

Our stock of French Pattern Hats is now complete. We are showing a greater variety of styles this season than ever before. Our success in this department convinces us that ready-to-wear millinery has come to stay. The hats we show are patterned after the very latest styles shown in the larger cities of the East, and it stands to reason that, being purchased in such large quantities as we buy them, they can be sold very much cheaper than you will find 'em elsewhere. You may have some prejudice against buying a ready-to-wear Trimmed Hat. Examine ours and we believe you'll change your sentiments. Prices $1.75 to $5.98.

REAL EXCELLENCE IN DRESS GOODS.

Critical and reliable judges have pronounced our Fall Dress Goods stock the best ever shown in this community. The semi-annual visits of our buyer to the Eastern markets make the above assertion appear merely as a reasonable expectation. The very latest fabric creations are displayed here. In blacks you'll find the new Satin Cloths, Soliels, Lizard Cloths, Clay Worsteds, Cheviots, Venitians, in prices from 69c. to $2.25. And then, too, those Camel's Hair Golf Cloths, Plaids, Knickerbockers, Zibelines, &c., from 29c. to $1.98. It's a stock worthy of your inspection. You need not buy.

NEW MERCERIZED UNDERSKIRTS.

We haven't the space to say much about them. Briefly, they're the best we have ever shown. Nearly all come with large accordion plaits. Prices from 89c. to $4.98. Blacks and all colors.

Interesting Statistics as to the Growth of the Order in Kentucky and Throughout the World.

Nearly 400 members from the various subordinate lodges of the State attended the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky I. O. O. F. at Louisville this week.

In his annual message Grand Master reported that the total admissions to the order in this State during the year were 1,918; total losses, by death and otherwise, 777; net increase 1,131. Ten new lodges were instituted, making a total of 179, with a total membership of 10,551. Their receipts were $160,487.71; total disbursement $98,494.24. There are forty-five Rebekah lodges. The Grand Lodge's receipts were $10,200; disbursements $6,358. As previously stated, the year was one of the most prosperous in the history of the Grand Lodge.

Louisville has been entertaining the representatives of this noble order in right royal style this week. Tuesday afternoon the visitors enjoyed a trolley ride over the metropolis of the State, and were shown through the magnificent Avery plow works and the Kentucky wagon factory, two of the largest establishments of the kind in the country, where they saw plows and wagons in all stages of manufacture, from the raw material to the finished product. Wednesday afternoon the visitors enjoyed a ride on the river to Twelve Mile Island, and were regaled with music and a luncheon on board the steamer.

The firm offers three prizes for the most complete collection of their display advertisements cut from both the Ledger and BULLETIN. Those from the country should not hesitate to compete, for possibly they stand a better show of winning than town-folk, because there the papers are more generally preserved. TESTS PATIENCE.

The Most Patient Maysville Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times.

Nothing spoils a good disposition. Nothing takes a man's patience. Like any ichiness of the skin. Itching piles almost drive you crazy. All day it makes you miserable. All night it keeps you awake. Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief. Just the same with Eczema. Can hardly keep from scratching it. You would do so but you know it makes it worse.

Such miseries are daily decreasing. People are learning they can be cured. Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment. Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure piles, eczema or any ichiness of the skin.

Read the testimony of a Maysville citizen.

"Doan's Ointment is a wonderful preparation, and cures as if by magic. For a long time I had an itching of the scalp which was particularly troublesome just before a rain. Learning that Doan's Ointment was highly recommended for all troubles of this nature I got a box at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner West Second and Market streets. Its use soon ended the irritation. Two months have since elapsed and I have had no return whatever of the affliction."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

The Roosevelt train will arrive in Maysville at 4:45 o'clock p. m. on Monday next and leave at 5 o'clock p. m., which will give Teddy only about ten minutes in which to show his teeth.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from rectal fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest cure on earth and the best salve in the world. 25 cents a box. Sold by J. James Wood & Son, druggists.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c. and $1. Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhoea, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

WINE OF CARDUI

Townsend, Ga., May 18, 1899.
I have been in bad health with falling of the womb, weak back, nervousness and heart palpitation. At monthly periods I would be in bed suffering great pain. Lately I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and they have brought me wonderful relief. I have no pain, and do not stop work at the monthly period.

PRETTY BOURBON COUNTRY HOME AND

FARM

THE LATE RESIDENCE OF HARRISON B. CLAY.

On THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1900.

I will expose at public outcry at 1:30 o'clock p. m., on the premises, of splendid Blue Grass land, all good tobacco land of fine quality. It lies on Green creek and Paris & Winchester turnpike, one of the best roads in Bourbon County, and is 5 miles from Paris 12 miles from Winchester and 1½ miles from Cunningham Station, on the L. & N. R. R., over which 6 passenger trains pass daily. Cunningham has a post-office and express office. The improvements consist of a nice modern residence of seven rooms, pantry, kitchen and cellar with large elstern at the door; ice house, meat house, buggy house, poultry house, stables and outhouses, all nearly new and in good repair. An abundance of fencing in good condition, along pike, mostly stone wall. There is sufficient good timber to build a large tobacco barn and one of the finest springs in Bourbon County supplying running water for any amount of stock during the most protracted droughts. It is seldom so desirable a farm is put upon the market. By calling on T. Helm Clay at Paris, Ky., or Jno. C. Clay, F. E. Nelson or the Galtskill Bros. near the farm, prospective buyers will be shown the place. Possession of the improvements and about 15 acres will be given when first payment is made on day of sale. Balance in 2 equal payments in 1 and 12 months from day of sale, negotiable notes bearing six per cent. interest from day of sale. Possession of remainder of land given Jan. 1st, 1901.

150 ACRES

T. HELM CLAY.
